1

BEST SHRIMP COCKTAIL

Chef Robert Watson has perfected the art of prawn preparation – a nanosecond-critical dance of blanching in which the shrimp are quickly pulled from the boil and shocked with ice water, preserving that all-important snap and firmness.

2

BEST PLACE TO SPOT CELEBRITIES

One thing we've learned at PHOENIX: If you ask a young millionaire sports star to name his favorite Valley restaurant, four times out of five the answer will be Steak 44.

3

BEST STEAKHOUSE

Shrimp and Phoenix Suns are well and good, but a steakhouse's mettle is ultimately confirmed by the excellence of its meat, and we've not tasted a better bone-in ribeye in the Valley – caramelized to hell outside, damn near bloody inside.
